wheel will take a gift therefrom, and the gift thus taken will belong to the number taken immediately before it—this process will continue—the numbers and gifts being publicly announced—and the whole four hundred and one gifts are distributed.
Thus the public will readily see there can be no fraud, collusion, or knowledge of what gift any number will get.

Should the tickets be not all sold when sold.

It is hoped the public will promptly re-

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Our local space is necessarily given up to-day for other matter.

There was a slight snow in Norfolk, Va., on Monday.

Please somebody write about the "beautiful snow." We can't see it, only five sticks of wood in our yard.

The furniture of the National Hotel will be sold at public auction on the 23rd inst. See notice elsewhere.

The appointments of the North Carolina M. E. Conference for the ensuing year will appear to-morrow morning.
They are necessarily crowded out of this issue.

The State Agricultural Convention met in this city yesterday, but its proceedings are crowded out of this issue. We will endeavor to give a full account of it to-morrow.

The feast of the Ladies' Memorial Association commenced at Tucker Hall last night, but owing to the inclement weather, was not largely attended. We hope to see a good crowd there tonight.

We have received the programme for the semi-annual Concert at Tucker Hall by the young ladies of the Raleigh Fe-is attractive and will prove a good draw.

We have received a communication concerning the State Debt, signed "H.

the Court, has shown himself to be the right man in the right place.

We regret that lack of space to-day precludes the possibility of publishing the appointments of the N. C. Confer-has been reassigned to the Raleigh Conference District as Presiding Elder.

Rev. A. W. Mangum to the Edenton

JUDGE BROOKS' REASONS FOR REMOVAL.

PORTER.—In the Circuit Court Tuesday, Judge Brooks delivered the following remarks in regard to the removal of W. H. Porter, United States Commissioner:

"After due consideration, I have determined to remove, or release, from his official duties, an officer of this Court, and I regard it as proper that I should state now, and here, the reasons for this course on my part.

Many complaints have been made to me in regard to the conduct of some of the Commissioners appointed by this Court. Upon investigation I have been satisfied that these charges, so far as they related to some of these officers, were not well founded. In regard to others I have removed one or more, who were appointed for that, which is now the Western District, and others I would have removed, but for the law creating the Western District which was passed about the time I became well satisfied of their unfitness for the proper discharge of the duties required of them.
It will be remembered that the law establishing the Western District was passed while this Court was in session at the last term, and I preferred that the responsibility should rest with the Judge of that District to consider the action of the officers.

Now it comes to me in an unquestionable form, that one of the Commissioners of this Eastern District, has not been so mindful of his duty as he should have been. While I do not hesitate to say that I would always exercise a mere discretionary power in favor of any officer who had erred, but had honestly misunderstood his duty, I feel that it would be criminal in me to excuse one who has persisted in error in such a way as to induce me to believe that he knows "the wrong and yet the wrong purposes."

An account against the government has been presented by William H. Porter, United States Commissioner at Fayetteville, for my approval for near $500, and upon examination I find that much of the services charged, appear to have been rendered in cases in which the charges were a "general conspiracy" to violate the acts passed to enforce the provisions of the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States. In each of these cases a separate warrant has been issued for each individual charged, and in many instances a separate subpoena for each witness, when according to the plain requirement of the law, he was required to place in each warrant and each subpoena as many names as conveniently could be.

The effect of the course pursued, is, it allowed to increase in some instances, four or five fold the cost of these proceedings to the government for executing such process; but also to increase very materially his own charges for a separate examination in each case. It is known that a marshal for executing a precept is only entitled to his mileage from the place of return to the place of service upon the nearest party in such precept, and then only to any additional mileage from the first service to the places at which the others are served, which often would make a vast difference to the government or the parties who may have such costs to pay, and also to increase very materially the commissioner's per diem of $5, as well as his fees for such process.

Now all this is wrong. No officer should be allowed to indulge his capriciousness, either at the expense of the government or the citizen, though such citizen may be accused of a violation of the law.

I am for these reasons constrained to endorse upon this account of Mr. Porter's, "Not approved," and further to remove him from his office of commissioner, which order of removal I now make.

In making this order, I desire that even the most humble citizen in this District shall well understand that I neither desire or design to withdraw from him, any, even the least protection provided for him by the law, and that there may be no reason for apprehending any civil results from this action. I will state that if I shall be informed of any violation of the Enforcement Acts being committed hereafter, in any part of this District, and there shall be no commissioner who can conveniently perform his duty under the law, I will go myself, promptly to any county in the District in which there shall be no Commissioner, and there remain while it may be necessary, to hear the complaints, issue warrants, if need be, and examine the charges against such as may be accused."

Economy—Governor's and Treasurer's Salary.

The tax-paying people of North Carolina will rejoice that the Legislature has taken this subject into consideration. It is an outrage that we should be compelled to pay the very high salaries imposed by the carpet bag government in 1868, and which was attempted to be secured in the Constitution that the tax payers could have no remedy.

In olden times our Governors lived handsomely, and entertained hospitably on $2,500 and $3,000 a year. When such men as Morehead, and Reid, and Graham, and Manly, and Bragg, and Ellis presided over the destinies of the State. Why not do so now—in the same, or even a less salary, in our greatly depressed and impoverished condition? There is not an honest man in N. C. who has taxes to pay, who will not say that $3,000 a year is enough for our Governor.

We hope the friends of economy and good government will insist on the yeas and nays on this and kindred questions, and let the people see who is and who is not for reducing expenses in our State government.

OXFORD ITEMS.—Our Oxford correspondent, under date of yesterday, gives us the subjoined items.

St. John's College.—The prospect of having this beautiful edifice opened as an Orphan Asylum, with Mr. J. H. Mills as Superintendent, is hailed with delight by all classes of our citizens. It is hoped that the Legislature will come forward with a proper liberality in aid of the plan proposed by the Grand Lodge.

The success of the People's Building and Loan Association is exceeding the expectations of many of its members, some of whom are taking a double quantity of stock, and new members are joining at almost every meeting. The meetings of the Association which take place at the C. H., the third Friday night, in every month, are open to the public, and the bidding for the money is often quite spirited. This Institution thus far has been managed with great economy and is paying good interest to the stock-holders.

Your many readers in Granville, and other parts of the State, will regret to hear of the illness of Mr. John C. Taylor, who is one of our most intelligent citizens. He formerly represented this county in the Legislature, and is at present, President of the Goodwyn Agricultural Club.

A very prudent farmer residing eight or ten miles from Oxford, walked to town the other day, being unwilling for his horses to come in contact with the epizooty. He even took the precaution to build a very high fence, and put him in the enclosure, feeling assured that they were clearly out of the reach of all danger of catching the much dreaded disease. To his mortification, however, on his arrival at home after a fatiguing trip with tight shoes, he found every one of them suffering with decided indications of the malady.

THE NORTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE

AND THE BIBLE CAUSE.—During the recent Convention of the N. C. Conference of the M. E. Church in Fayetteville, a special committee was appointed to report on the Bible cause. The committee made a report setting forth in brief the results of the Agent's labors during the nine months he has been in the field. Conference recommended that the American Bible Society should employ an additional Agent for N. C., as the field is too large to be successfully cultivated by one Agent. The following resolutions were unanimously adopted.

Resolved, That we heartily approve the efforts of the American Bible Society to supply the word of God to the destitute families in N. C.

Resolved, That we will co-operate with the State Agent in this glorious enterprise, and that he is hereby cordially invited to visit our Pastoral charges in advancing the interests of the Bible cause.

The Rev. P. A. Strobel, the State Agent, addressed the Conference in a brief, but pertinent

STATE NEWS.

The Sampson county Superior Court convened in Clinton Monday.

The Sampson county people want a Railroad from Fayetteville to Goldsboro.

The Wilmington Star says, Mr. W. R. Bass, a prominent merchant of that city died on Sunday.

Katie Putnam troupe will play in Charleston next week, and in Savannah Christmas week.

A man named A. G. Sapp has just been sentenced to the State prison for three years from Stokes county for receiving a gold watch.

The Charlotte Observer says there have been but three cases of small pox in Charlotte, and these are now entirely well, with no fears of any new cases.

The Wilmington Star says, "Mr. Purdie Richardson, of Wadesboro, died suddenly in that town, on Sunday morning last, at the advanced age of 72 years."

The Wilmington papers speak in the highest terms of Katie Putnam troupe. We are pleased to know that the managers are meeting with success in our sister city.

There is an effort being made in Stokes county to change the name of the county seat to Saura Town, the object being to preserve the name of the former owners of that section, the Saura Indians.

The Charlotte Observer chronicles the presence in that city on Sunday, of Maj. Dunham, Senator from Wilson, Colonel Turner, Engrossing Clerk of the Senate, and C. M. T. McCauley, Esq., Senator from Anson.

The Wilmington Journal says, "Justice Woodford yesterday issued a warrant for the arrest of a sailor by the name of Daniel M. Stevens, who had deserted from the schooner Leonora, now lying at that port."

The Cleveland Banner, edited by Plato Durham, Esq., says: "We have authority for stating, that there will be no further arrests in this section of the State, under the Ku Klux acts of Congress. All persons who have left home from an apprehension of trouble under these acts, can at once return, if they desire, and they will not be molested."

Preparations for the Inauguration Ball.

Washington correspondence Philadelphia Press says: "The subject of an inauguration ball is already exciting attention. There has been a meeting of citizens to make preparations. Gov. Cook presided, and two secretaries were appointed. A committee, with A. H. Sheppard for chairman, was chosen. The enterprise and energy of this gentleman insure a good prospect for well organized plans and programmes, and will do much towards effacing from the memory of its unhappy victims the blunders and stupidity of the last inauguration ball. The crowd attending that ball was beyond belief when taken in connection with the fact that the tickets were sold for ten dollars, an arrangement made with a view to keep out the common herd. The value of the wearing apparel cost on that occasion has been estimated at ten thousand dollars. The committee of arrangements paid out of the funds received, over 1,500 for hats, caps, coats, shawls and other wearing apparel, and which, in consequence of the confusion and want of system were not delivered to the owners when called for. Besides these losses were lace handkerchiefs worth fabulous sums. A lady told me the one she lost cost a hundred dollars, and it was a common affair compared with others that went in the same way. Watches and chains, ear-rings and brooches, and all varieties of ladies attire were wrested from the fair owners on that eventful occasion. Gouty old gentlemen were obliged to go home without their carriages with handkerchiefs tied on their heads, and there is no end to the tales told of loss and inconvenience suffered, all to go to an inauguration ball.

The gravest question under consideration at the last affair of this kind was the admission of colored people, and the shits resorted to to avoid the issue, either of admitting or rejecting them, were amusing enough. There will be no room for dispute this time. The only question to be settled is, will the colored people accept the situation? They cannot be ignored, now that they occupy seats in Congress and are recognized in all the affairs of life. Social recognition must of necessity follow if they choose to avail themselves of it. Mrs. Elliott, the wife of the colored member from South Carolina, was made to feel that the gallery set apart for members' wives was not capacious enough to hold a colored member's wife last winter, and she did not repeat the experiment. When questioned by an indignant white member's wife in regard to the intrusion, the doorkeeper answered that his instructions were to admit members' families, and no exceptions were made on account of color. The noses of the favored white race, in spite of political equality, involuntarily elevate when coming in social contact with this people, and the attempt, it made, to mingle in such manner will present many novel and interesting scenes.

CRIME ANALYZED IN CHICAGO.—The Chicago Committee of Five, to whom was intrusted the duty of inquiring into the causes for the increased prevalence of crime in that city, have submitted their report. They divide the cause of crime into two classes, the predisposing and the existing. The first class is dismissed with a paragraph, and the latter is limited to the single element of habitual drinking. They say that the average judgment of the civilized world when they assert that the use of liquor when responsible to a greater extent than all other causes for the spread of crime.

MR. GREELEY'S MENTAL AILMENT.

Dr. W. A. Hammond, surgeon general of the army, was called to see Mr. Greeley shortly before his death, and gives the following account of the condition he found him in: His delirium was characterized by an incoherence of expression and by extreme disorder in the arrangement of his ideas. The delirium was of a very low character, and clearly indicated his approaching dissolution. He exhibited a marked tendency to repeat certain expressions which appeared habitual to him. It was evident to me that no gleam of consciousness remained. He very rarely answered the questions I asked him, and whenever he did the answers were wrong.

Dr. Brackowiser, who was the first physician who saw Mr. Greeley immediately before he became deranged, says: He suffered the same depression of spirits on Friday, and seemed to be contentedly dwelling on some unpleasant subject. He thought himself a ruined man, and believed that he dragged his friends down with him. But I do not think he was insane at that time. He was very slow in giving his answers, and appeared very unwilling to communicate with us. He gave correct answers, however, to all our questions about his health. The only thing abnormal about him was that he took a very gloomy view of his present and future condition. He thought he was a ruined man, and had ruined his friends.

A SINGULAR MURDER.—A murder of a most deliberate character, and noteworthy for the curious manner in which it was accomplished, is reported from Eldersville, Pennsylvania.

The victim of the crime was an old man over seventy years of age, named John Allingham, who kept a small grocery in the village, and with his wife occupied a bed room on the ground floor. Directly at the head of the bed was a small window, and it was by taking advantage of this fact that the murderers were enabled to carry out their design. A platform was set up in the yard of the exact height of the window; upon this was placed a piece of gas or water pipe, pointed directly toward the head of the sleeping man, and heavily loaded with powder and slugs. A fuse was attached to this infernal machine, which, by its slow combustion, gave the murderers ample opportunity to make good their escape. The effects of the explosion may be easily imagined. Mr. Allingham's head was completely shattered, while his wife was severely wounded. The pipe was found at a distance of some twelve yards from the window, thus showing how heavily it must have been loaded.

Sir Sidney Waterlow, the new Lord Mayor of London, began life as an apprentice in a printing office, went to Paris to seek work as a compositor and for some time was employed at Galignani's. Then he returned to London and joined his father and brother in a little shop, which gradually grew into a huge and wealthy establishment.

Henry Wilson is the eleventh Senator who has been elected Vice President, the others having been Aaron Burr, John C. Calhoun, Richard M. Johnson, Martin Van Buren, John Tyler, George M. Dallas, Win. R. King, John C. Breckinridge, Hannibal Hamlin and Andrew Johnson.

The Secretary of the Treasury has telegraphed the Collector of Customs at Port Townsend, to assume jurisdiction over San Juan and enforce the Revenue law.

The French Spoliation bill is postponed to the 22d of January.

The Indian appropriations bill has passed.

Adjourned.

SENATE.—The disabilities of Lamar, of Mississippi, were removed unanimously.

Many private bills passed.

Sumner's supplemental civil rights bill went over under objection from Mr. Morrill, of Maine.

Sherman, from the Finance Committee, reported the House bill for the reduction of officers and expenses of Internal Revenue, with amendments providing that the offices of Assessor and Assistant Assessor shall cease to exist at such times in the districts respectively as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue may find practicable prior to July first 1873; authorizing the appointment of twenty five Agents until July first 1874, in addition to those provided for by existing law; amending the present law so as to provide that one half per cent. shall be paid to the collector receiving the tax on all spirits produced after the office of the assessor shall cease according to this bill.

Bills were introduced as follows by Lewis: To provide for the recomputation of the accounts between the United States and the several States growing out of money expended by said States in the war of 1813. By Osborn: A bill authorizing the establishment of a Life Saving Station on the coast of Florida. By Mr. Ramsey: A bill to repeal the act of March eleven, 1872, for the relief of G. W. Morris, which was authorized.

New York Affairs.

NEW YORK, Dec. 11.—A motion to quash the indictment against Tweed was denied by Judge Ingraham.

Eleven bodies are at morgue from Fifth Avenue Hotel. Only two have been recognized. All give signs of terrible suffering. Mary Heany, one of the servants at the hotel, is at Bellevue Hospital, having been injured by falling through the fire to escape. She states that when the alarm of fire was given, she ran and knocked at nearly all the doors of the other servants, and burst open two of them. She then tried to get down stairs, but the smoke and flames drove her back, when with Mary Turney and Bridget Curtis she broke open a sky light and got on the roof, remaining there until firemen rescued them. It is now thought that only 11 girls perished. Mr. Griswold, one of the proprietors, emphatically denies delay in sounding alarm upon the discovery of the fire. Three servants were dispatched to wake the girls and prompt measures were taken to alarm guests.

The Alabama Legislature.

MONTGOMERY, ALA., Dec. 11.—About one o'clock to-day, while the Capital Legislature was in session, Sheriff Stroheck appeared in the Senate, and said he had a warrant from Gov. Lewis to take possession of the Capital. Whereupon the Senate ordered the sergeant-at-arms to arrest the Sheriff for contempt, and hold him in custody 48 hours dating from noon. The Sheriff did not resist arrest, but explained that he was merely acting under orders, and on apologizing to the Senate was released. For a few moments the excitement was intense, and the Federal troops stationed near the Capital got under arms, but no necessity appearing, they dispersed to quarters. The Senate authorized the sergeant-at-arms to summon police to protect the Capital against all but Federal forces, and adjourned. The Sheriff appeared before the door of the House, but the Sergeant-at-Arms refused admittance except to Federal forces, and the Sheriff withdrew. The Legislature in the Court room admitted another person to a seat who was defeated, according to the official returns, by a large majority.
